a) Wedding Flower Service

Only Marion Ball and Kath Cummings are remaining of the original group of church members who have worked together to provide the Wedding Flower Service over the last 27 years and due to ongoing health problems they have both reluctantly decided to resign. The secretary was asked to prepare a letter of thanks for all their hard work over the years and Denys Gaskell to be asked to remove the relevant section from the church website.

7. MISSION ACTION PLAN

a) Family Service

It was suggested that the PCC should look at the family service as a route to bring in new members. John Rigarlsford agreed to forward the relevant application form to Revd Reade for completion.

b) Hour of Prayer

The PCC agreed that the next Hour of Prayer should be held in the church at 11 am on 2 March 2013. Suggestions received following the first Hour of Prayer in September were for prayers to be led but also an hour of quiet was appreciated by others. Prayer guidance for the Hour of Prayer is available in the Church if required.

11. ECUMENICAL

Ways are always being sought of encouraging children to become involved in the church and one way that is being used successfully by some churches is 'Messy Church'. Training for this is will be held at St Barnabas, Danesmoor on Saturday 24 November 10am-12.30pm. 'Messy Church' is a successful way to involve children but it is time consuming to organise the events and requires the involvement of many people. The Head teacher is sympathetic towards hosting any children's work at the School. Members from the Methodist Church are also interested in working jointly on this issue.

12. PCC MEETING

The next PCC meeting is scheduled for Wednesday 28 November 2012 at 7.30pm in the Church.
